ROAD COMMISSIONER REPORTS

Commissioner Rod Green

No report

Commissioner Barb Fuller

Not present.

Commissioner Doug Fuller

Commissioner Doug Fuller commented that he was pleased that the road crews could spend Christmas at home with their families with quiet weather conditions.

MANAGING DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Sheryl Siddall, Managing Director, reported that last month we received a communication from Michelle Deatruck regarding Scully Road. Sheryl Siddall and Emily Kizer, Communications Manager, are preparing a response to Michelle's communication.

Sheryl also reported that at the end of 2018, the legislature appropriated an additional $114 million towards transportation. This should result in a little over $1 million to the WCRC.

OPERATIONS REPORT*Jim Harmon, Director of Operations

- Jim Harmon reported that with the more mild winter weather so far, this has resulted in lower winter maintenance costs to date which will put the Operations Department in a much better position for end of fiscal year 2019.

ENGINEERING REPORT*Matt MacDonell, Director of Engineering

- Sharon Valley Road Bridge (Manchester) – crews are pouring the concrete and have dealt with the artesian conditions at this location. Once the abutment is cured, the beams are ready for delivery. After the beams are in place, this project will be on hold until the spring with more favorable weather.
- Matt MacDonell provided a list of Engineering projects to the Board through 2023.

FINANCE & IT REPORT*Dan Ackerman, Director of Finance & IT*Finance Report

- Dan Ackerman reported that the annual inventory counts for the Road Commission stock room took place today. We have inventory of about $1.2 million dollars. Mr. Ackerman provided a review of what takes place during the annual inventory counts.
- The Plant and Moran auditors will be on site starting tomorrow for the annual audit.
- Dan Ackerman provided a review of year end activities in the Finance Department preparing for the annual audit.

IT Report

- The laptops have been received for the foreman. This is part of the SAW Grant.
- The IT Department is working on the 2018 IT Year End Review. This will be presented at the January working session.
- Chris Quinter, System Administrator, is ready to move forward with 2019 PC replacements for staff.

Michigan Transportation Fund Receipts

Dan Ackerman reported that the MTF for November 2018 is up about 11% and up about 8.6% for year.
